

User modes in linux :-

$ - normal user

sudo su -

- root user

exit

$ - normal user

commands :-

pwd - present working directory

ls -> list

ls -l -> detailed list

ls -lrt -> detailed list with reverse timestamp ls -al -> detailed list with hidden files ls -lart -> detailed list with hidden files in reverse timestamp

cat > filename

content

ctrl+d

cat filename -> to display the content of file on terminal cd path -> change directory versions -> kernels

folders -> directories

software -> package

file -> file

/home/ec2-user

